

Robert McDonald

Certified as Plans Examiner County Building Inspector

The Wasatch County Commission announced Monday that Robert iner by the International Conference spector, has been notified that he has been certified as a Plans Exam-McDonald, the county building inof Building Officials.

the county's engineering firm, said, years and recently was contracted as neering, which has worked on the first time, but McDonald passed county projects for a number of According to Commissioner Pete Coleman, 85 percent of those who take the certification test fail it on his first try. An employee of Eckhoff Watson and Preator Engi-

"We're damed lucky to have Robert McDonald working for the county."

McDonald was hired as the a year ago. During that time, he also has been certified as a building chanical inspector and structural building inspector a little more than inspector, plumbing inspector, memasonry inspector.

with the continuing efforts of the vices of a well-qualified Building building inspector to increase his The county commissioners said Inspection Department and pleased they are "pleased to offer the citizens of Wasatch County the serknowledge and skills."

Robert McDonald

Certified as Plans Examiner County Building Inspector

"We're darned lucky to have Robert

The Wasatch County Commission announced Monday that Robert spector, has been notified that he iner by the International Conference has been certified as a Plans Exam-McDonald, the county building inof Building Officials.

neering, which has worked on years and recently was contracted as the county's engineering firm, said, Pete Coleman, 85 percent of those who take the certification test fail it the first time, but McDonald passed county projects for a number of According to Commissioner on his first try. An employee of Eckhoff Watson and Preator Engizens of Wasatch County the ser-McDonald was hired as the a year ago. During that time, he The county commissioners said vices of a well-qualified Building building inspector a little more than also has been certified as a building nspector, plumbing inspector, mechanical inspector and structural they are "pleased to offer the citi-Inspection Department and pleased McDonald working for the county. masonry inspector.

with the continuing efforts of the building inspector to increase his knowledge and skills."